

SHOPPING TIP OF THE DAY

Green valentine

Dunia is described as an earth-friendly store for the home, body, and soul. Owners Paige O'Brien and Didi Chadran purchase merchandise from vendors committed to environmentally sound products and fair-trade practices. Dunia's Valentine's Day products include Divine Dark Chocolate Bars ($2.95), soap and candy dishes by Donna Richey Glassworks ($25), Zhenia's Organic Gypsy Love Tea ($9.95), bottle openers made from bicycle chains and gears by Resource Revival ($9.95), and CD holders made from used license plates by Littlearth ($20). Dunia exhibits works by local artists, and the current show is "Unmentionables," an installation of intimate apparel sculpted from found objects and recycled materials. Dunia, 43 Nason St., Maynard, 978-897-8850. www.dunia-ecostore.com/Valentines\_popup.html

SIDEKICK STAFF

Editor James Reed jreed@globe.com
Art director Tito Bottitta tbottitta@globe.com
Writer Meredith Goldstein
mgoldstein@globe.com
Events June Wulff jwulff@globe.com
Boston.com Adrienne Lavidor-Berman adriennelh@boston.com

late in the subject line.