

Shades of green

The latest exhibit at Dunia, a self-described “eco-store” with an art gallery, is good for the environment. Really. “Magic: Outside/Inside,” featuring works by Maynard artist Sarah Jeppson, is a fund-raiser for the Earthwatch Institute. Twenty percent of the sales of Jeppson’s work, which combines mediums such as pastels and watercolor, will be donated to Earthwatch, an organization that places environmentally concerned volunteers with field researchers all over the world. Jeppson’s work includes the mixed-media “Semi-Permeable Universe” (left). “Magic” opens today and runs through Aug. 19. Gallery at Dunia, 43 Nason St., Maynard, 978-897-8850. www.dunia-ecostore.com [M.G.]

Armed with inspiration

If you wear your heart on your sleeve, you’ll probably like the Affirmacuff Message Bracelet. The leather band comes with a silvertone plate engraved with inspirational sayings such as “Follow Your Passion,” “Laugh Out Loud,” or “Unconditional Love” (you won’t find our sayings of choice, though: “Leave Me Alone” or “No Way”). The bracelet is 7 inches long and comes in a variety of colors and messages; you can also clip it to a handbag or belt. Price: $45.

SIDEKICK STAFF

Editor

Katie Johnston Chase
johnstonchase@globe.com

Art director

Tito Bottitta
tbottitta@globe.com

Writer

Meredith Goldstein
mgoldstein@globe.com

Events

June Wulff
jwulff@globe.com

Boston.com

Norman Dalager
ndalager@boston.com

Submit event information to Meredith Goldstein and June Wulff with the event date in the subject line.

Because events can always be canceled or sold out, it's best to call to confirm.