The Galleria at Dunia in Maynard, an art space based in an eco-friendly store, opens a new exhibit today — “Floating Out: Marine Botanical Art.” The show features ink prints by married artists Eva and Dan Barstow, who scan seaweed to create works such as “Chlorophyta, Costa Rica, 2004” (above). The show runs through Oct. 17; 20 percent of proceeds from sales of works will be given to the Organization for the Assabet River. Galleria at Dunia, 43 Nason St., Maynard, 978-897-8850. www.dunia-ecostore.com [M.G.]
